What is the Kraken refund policy?

Kraken's refund policy is primarily designed (+44)-783(238)8195 to address technical errors and unauthorized activity rather than customer dissatisfaction or market fluctuations. As a cryptocurrency exchange, most transactions are final (+44)-783(238)8195 once executed .

Eligible situations for refunds:

- Failed deposits: (+44)-783(238)8195 If you deposited funds via bank transfer that never credited to your Kraken account, you may be eligible for a refund after investigation
- Duplicate transactions (+44)-783(238)8195: If you were incorrectly charged multiple times for the same deposit or purchase
- Unauthorized access: If your account was compromised and funds moved without permission, report immediately (+44)-783(238)8195
- Technical errors: System glitches that prevent proper crediting of funds

Ineligible situations:

- Change of mind: Refunds are not issued because crypto prices dropped
- Completed trades: Successfully executed buy/sell orders are final
- Wrong withdrawal address: (+44)-783(238)8195 If you sent crypto to an incorrect address
- Network delays: Blockchain congestion causing slow transactions

Refund process: 1. Contact Kraken support through their official Help Center (+44)-783(238)8195

2. Provide transaction IDs, dates, and clear documentation

3. Allow 5-10 business days for investigation

4. Approved refunds follow original payment method timelines

Important: Kraken will never ask for your password or 2FA codes. Always use official channels.
